b. A number of meetings and conversations have been held with [REDACTED] of OCS for the purpose of clarifying OTR's contribution to the OCS - sponsored seminar, "The Government Executive and Management Science" (referred to in last week's report as "Executive Decision-Making"). So far, the general idea seems to be that Mr. [REDACTED] will write the course description and a memorandum, both of which Mr. [REDACTED] Chairman of the Information Processing Board, can take to Colonel White in an effort to convince the latter to endorse the seminar and encourage senior officer participation. Just why OTR is supposed to do all this is still a mystery but we are proceeding with the exercise.

2. MEDC

a. On 13 July 1970 Messrs. [REDACTED] met with Mr. [REDACTED] to discuss the presentations for the CS portion of the next course. It was noted that these inputs were considerably better for the 24th running than for the 23rd, and Mr. [REDACTED] said that he would coordinate the CS talks for the next running. He suggested getting -- and later got -- [REDACTED] to 25X1A9a
